Her Beautiful Journey

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me besides the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

(Psalm 23:1-6)

The light of God's creation can never be dimmed. One light in particular, hit the earth on February 16, 1957. A baby girl born to George and Susie Mae McHenry. Betty Mearl McHenry was full of life, love and resiliency. Her concern and compassion for her children and grandchildren will live on forever.

Betty McHenry was a native Houstonian. She attended school within the Houston Independent School District.

Betty confessed Christ at an early age and never wavered in her belief.

Betty is preceded in death by her father, George McHenry, her mother; Susie McHenry, four brothers and a sister; George McHenry Jr., Jimmie Lee Jordan, Jessie James Haywood, Curtis Ray McHenry, Lucy Ann Robinson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two children: U.L. McHenry (Amy) and Jacquet Abdullah; seven grandchildren: U. L. Anthony McHenry, Braelin Dewarren Henderson, Jalen Jordan McHenry, Jahleiyah Mae McHenry, Jahlaylah Amari-Mearl McHenry, Raelin Ray McHenry, Rage Jair Ray McHenry; three siblings: Frank Benjamin, Diane Kersee (Benard), Raymond Earl McHenry; husband, Robert Filmore; and a host of nieces and nephews.
