

Loving Expressions

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing as I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.

Love, DeeDee

As a brother you were a fierce protector and buddy. As an uncle, you were a quiet enigma that seldom spoke but would support. Larry had lifelong friendships that lasted decades. From 4th ward to areas across this city and beyond. There are no words to express the loss of our gentle giant. We love you and as you often would say. Be Easy.

Love Your Siblings

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again."

His Journey

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.”

(Psalm 23:1-6)

Larry C. McGrew was born on September 6, 1950 to the union of James McGrew Sr. and Georgia L. Thompson in Houston Texas.

He received their formal education from Lincoln High School in Houston, Texas. He furthered his educational studies at Texas Southern University in Houston, Texas.

With the blessing of being reared in a loving Christian home, he accepted Christ as his Savior at the age of 10 at Friendship Baptist Church, where he served on the usher board.

Larry enlisted in the United States Army, where he was honorably discharged. He was employed by the City of Houston in the Water Division for twenty (20) years.

In his leisure, he enjoyed sports, fine cars and a good meal.

Larry Charles McGrew departed this life on April 29, 2022.

He leaves precious and loving memories to his brothers, James McGrew Jr. and Audie McGrew; sisters, Janice McGrew and Jaqueline McGrew; nephew, Whitney McGrew; nieces, Annette Sagers, Tiffany Sagers and Shaunta “DeeDee” McGrew; and a host of other relatives and friends.
