

Loving Expression

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Love you all, Manuel

His Journey

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

(Psalm 23:1-6)

Manuel Thomas Scott was born and raised in Houston, Texas with his mother, Mildred Scott and father, Thomas Scott.

He graduated from Wheatley High School in 1958.

With the blessing of being reared in a Christian, loving home, he accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior at an early age. Manuel's church home was First Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church. He sang in the choir early on. His love for singing when he was younger gave him an opportunity to sing with Archie Bell and the Drells.

In his leisure, he enjoyed playing dominoes, watching TV and spending time with his family.

He worked at W.K.M. as a lead foreman. After which, he worked at Metro as a bus operator, where he later retired after twenty-five years of service. His friends and co-workers called him "Scotty."

He is survived by his children, Reginald Deron Scott, Leslie Scott-Akens, Marcellus Jerome Scott; grandchildren, Jalisa Scotta, Raya Mckensi Scot; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
