Patrice Athene Mack was born on November 6, 1950 in Houston, Texas to the late Joseph Lawrence Mack and Rayme Taylor Mack.

Patrice gave her life to Christ at the early age of seven and was baptised and attended Antioch Missionary Baptist Church in downtown Houston, Texas. Patrice grew up on Ruth Street in Third Ward Houston, Texas and was a part of the neighborhood "Ruth Street Gang", an affectionate group of young black children that grew up together in the 50's.

Patrice attended Lockhart Elementary, Miller Middle School and graduated from Jack Yates Senior High School in 1968.

Patrice gave birth to a beautiful baby girl in 1967, Tanya Yvette, and later met and married Clarence Joseph Boutte. To this union two more beautiful baby girls were born Tiffanie Jo-Reighme and Tashanna Shavette. Patrice was very proud of all three of her daughters and would brag often about them to anyone that would listen.

She went on to work for Equifax, Jason's Deli and retired from Katy ISD. Patrice loved being a bus attendant and adored the kids that she transported daily.

Patrice loved to collect elephants, was a festive decorator and she loved to dress in trendy outfits. She was an avid Marvin Gay fan and loved all of his hits. Patrice was the life of every family gathering and loved her family and friends dearly.

She is preceded in death by her parents Rayme T. Mack and Joseph L. Mack.

An Angel

An angel lived among us,
A gift from God above.
She showered us with kindness
And shared with us her love.

She cherished every moment
With the man who was her life;
Walking hand in hand together,
Facing life with all its strife.

She loved her children dearly,
Each one a different way,
Nestled close within her heart.
Though, now, she's far away.

She's gone to live with Jesus.
But, she's here with us, today,
Smiling down on every one of us,
And telling us she's O.K.

Granny Trice

Known for her free-spirit, affectionate nature, and thousand-watt smile, Granny Trice is sorely missed by her grandchildren. She was the life of the party, the light in every room, and someone we could always go to for a laugh, some wisdom, or a comforting word. We miss your hugs that were so tight they knocked the wind out of us, your boisterous laughter that filled every room, your smile that was as sweet as the strawberry candies we'd sneak from your candy bowl, and the big red lipstick marks you'd leave on our cheeks every time you told us goodbye. She taught us how to smile no matter the situation, live life freely no matter your age, and love with an open heart. We know you're watching us from above, though, free from all hurt and suffering. We love you more than there are stars in the sky. Rest peacefully.

Always in your Heart

Picture me as I was,
Full of life and love.
Although not with you now,
I'm watching from above.
I know how much
you miss me,
And I miss you too.
It was my time to leave,
As each of us will do.
Although not in your arms,
I'm always in your heart.
The precious love we shared,
means we're never far apart.
