William James “Pete” Lucas, Sr. was born on June 22, 1940 to Mary Scott Lucas in Thomson, Georgia.

Pete had a personal relationship with God and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He attended school in Atlanta, Georgia and graduated from high school with a scholarship to Morehouse College. His academic work at Morehouse focused on Religious Studies for his 2 years there.

Pete retired in 2020.

Pete was a member of Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor D. Z. Cofield. Prior to his illness, he volunteered with Good Hope’s Food Pantry Drive-through and participated in the church’s small group ministry.

Pete was preceded in death by his grandfather Bonnie Scott, grandmother Amanda Scott, and mother Mary Scott Lucas.
